KNOW ALL MEN, by these

Presents, That WE James Leathem and John Denny both of Appoquinimink Hundred in the County of Newcastle ——— are held and firmly bound unto the State of Delaware, in the Sum of Four hundred ——— Dollars lawful money of the said State; unto which payment well and truly to be made unto the said State, ~~the~~ we do bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated at New-Castle, in New-Castle County aforesaid, this twenty third day of April, ——— in the year of our LORD one thousand seven hundred and ninety six.

THE Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above bounden ——— James Leathem ——— administrator of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of ———

Thomas Leathem late of Appoquinimink Hundred in the County aforesd. deceased (Sarah Leathem, the Widow of the deceased, having renounced) ——— ——— ~~deceased~~, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the said goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased ——— which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said James Leathem ——— or unto the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him ——— ; and the same so made do exhibit, or cause to be exhibited, into the Register's office of the county of New-Castle aforesaid, at or before the twenty third day of July ——— next ensuing the date hereof; and the same goods and chattels, rights and credits, of the said deceased at the time of his death, ——— or which at any time after shall come to the hands or possession of the said James Leathem ——— or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him ——— , do well and truly administer according to law; and further, do make or cause to be made, a true and just account of his administration, at or before the twenty third day of April ——— which shall fall in the year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and ninety seven; and all the rest and residue of the said goods and chattels, rights and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said administrator's account, the same being first examined and allowed of by the Register of the said county of New-Castle, shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively, as the said Register by his decree or sentence shall limit and appoint. And if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the said deceased, and the executor or executors therein named do exhibit the same in the Register's office, making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly; if the said James Leathem ——— within bounden, being thereunto required, do surrender and deliver up the said letters of administration (approbation of such testament being first had and made in the Register's office) then this obligation to be void, and of none effect, or else to remain in full force and virtue.
